

AARS / GLU Alumni Summer School Programme 1.10. - 8.10.2016

	Saturday 1.10	Sunday 2.10.	Monday 3.10			Tuesday 4.10		Wednesday 5.10			Thursday 6.10	Friday 7.10	Saturday 8.10
			Parallel sessions: policy debates			Parallel sessions: policy debates		Parallel sessions: skills development			Follow up cooperation	Follow up cooperation
9.00 - 10.30	Bus departs at 9am sharp in front of the hotel - Excursion to Apartheid Museum, Constitution Hill + Lunch (African Style) in Soweto	Departure from Hotel at 9.00 to Luijperdsklouf Game Lodge	Group discussions: Trade Union and Energy Democracy (Maité Llanos/Devan Pillay)	Group discussions: Strategies to deal with multinationals (Mark Anner)	Group discussions: Trade Union renewal (Lucien van der Walt plus N.N.)	TTIP, TESA, CETA (Christoph Scherrer)	The economics and politics of the struggle for minimum wages: the case of South Africa (Gilad Isaacs, Hansjörg Herr)	Using research as an outreach, awareness and organizing tool (Eddie Webster)	Researching Global Supply Chains (Mark Anner)	Efficient networking, campaigning, using new media and reaching beyond traditional structures (Charley Lewis)	Engaging in joint projects A) Global Labour Column (Mbuso, Nicolas, Helen) B) GLU MOOCs and Online tutoring (Tandiwe Gross) C) Comparative project on organising the unorganisable - the difficulties workers face to establish or join a union - documentary. (Edlira Xhafa//Eddie Webster)	Engaging in joint projects A) Global Labour Column (Mbuso Nkosi, Nicolas Pons-Vignon, Helen Russell) B) GLU MOOCs and Online tutoring (Tandiwe Gross) C) Comparative project on organising the unorganisable - the difficulties workers face to establish or join a union - documentary. (Eddie Webster/Edlira Xhafa)	8.30 am: Departure to Wits Club - Participation in TU Colloquium
10.30 - 11.00		Coffee
11.00 - 12.30		Welcome (Christoph Scherrer/Eddie Cottle) Introduction of participants, Presentation of Programme (Eddie Cottle/Helen Russell)  Introduction to Open Space (preparing small group discussion on issues suggested by alumni (Tandiwe Gross))	Group discussions: Trade Union and Energy Democracy (Maité Llanos/Devan Pillay)	Group discussions: Strategies to deal with multinationals (Mark Anner)	Group discussions: Trade Union renewal (Lucien van der Walt)	TTIP, TESA, CETA (Christoph Scherrer)	The economics and politics of the struggle for minimum wages The case of South Africa (Gilad Isaacs, Hansjörg Herr)	Using research as an outreach, awareness and organizing tool (Eddie Webster)	Researching Global Supply Chains (Mark Anner)	Efficient networking, campaigning, using new media and reaching beyond traditional structures (Charley Lewis)	Engaging in joint projects A) Global Labour Column (Mbuso Nkosi, Nicolas Pons-Vignon, Helen Russell) B) GLU MOOCs and Online tutoring (Tandiwe Gross) C) Comparative project on organising the unorganisable - the difficulties workers face to establish or join a union - documentary. (Eddie Webster/ Edlira Xhafa)	Engaging in joint projects A) Global Labour Column (Mbuso Nkosi, Nicolas Pons-Vignon, Helen Russell) B) GLU MOOCs and Online tutoring (Tandiwe Gross) C) Comparative project on organising the unorganisable - the difficulties workers face to establish or join a union - documentary. (Eddie Webster/Edlira Xhafa)	TU Colloquium (Numsa and GLU-SA alumni: experiences of university-based trade union education programme)
Lunch
14.00 - 15.30		Open Space: Small group discussions on projects and initiatives alumni are involved in and want to debate about (Moderation: Tandive Gross)	Voice and representation of workers working informally (Panel of GLU Alumni)			Panel discussion: Trends in global capitalism the influence of trade unions and other social movements (Eddie Cottle, Trevor Evans)		Open Space: Small group discussions on projects and initiatives alumni are involved in and want to debate about  Plenary: Five minutes reporting back and GLU Initiatives, developments and opportunities to engage (Frank Hoffer)			free slot	Report from working groups Evaluation and follow up
15.30- 16.00		Coffee
16.00 - 17.30		The development of Racial Capitalism in South Africa - Oupa Lehulere  A Historical overview of trade unionism in South Africa - (Lucien van der Walt)	Panel: Post democracy and the rise of popular authoritarianism (Christoph Scherrer, Helen Russell, Mark Anner, Devan Pillay)			Outing to the Wilderness		The challenges for the South African Labour Movement (Discussion of the book "Cosatu in Crisis" Vishwas Satgar, Eddie Webster, Dale Forbes)			Alumni Panel on issues of concern	Outing to the Wilderness
Dinner
evening			Informal side events and/or film (Oliver Stone - The Untold History of The US - Bush & Obama Age of Terror)					BBQ/Braai			Farewell Party		